Chapter 1 1913 June, 7th

As I went down to find Rayne and Sil, Leon came up behind me and whispered, "Hello Mynce whats up where you Headin' ?" I replied, "Its not your concern!" As I walked past him, He grabbed my hand and told me to watch my back and So I glared at him and said, "Your only telling me this because why...?" he said, "Cause your the reason why you brought us all together!" I walked past him and tossed down my collar madly at the words he said to me that I ever so dreaded to hear...He tried getting in front of me as I pushed him away and he said, "Fine I will break the collar" as I screamed, "You wouldn't!" He replied, "Oh I would little sister." So I chased him and threatened to kill him with my wrist blades as Rayne shouted at me, "Sister I love dearest if you even dare..." I looked back and saw Rayne with blood all over her clothes and saw Sil next to her looking pretty much mad for the most part. I said under my breathe, "God why spoil my fun..." I tried holding in a laugh as Sil glared at me and said, "I will never understand why the heck you do this to us" I said, "You will found out short one. One day you will thank me for everything I have done for you and Rayne and of course Leon!" He sat up and said, "Um speaking of family!" I pushed him down as I saw Rayne smirk at me and walked off as I ran after her and said, "What in the heck was that for!" She replied, "What do you mean?" I saw a dead man laying down dead all covered in blood as I whispered, "Mmm...Dinner!" She glared at me and Sil said, "Not your dinner...My dinner get your own!" I hissed at her as she muttered, "Little butt..." Rayne smelled blood near as I got up and noticed It was another Dhampire like one of us. He said, "Is Mynce here?" I appeared right behind him and whispered, "At your service Mister?" He was Kind of frightened to see me as I said to my two sisters and 1 brother, "I shall return my wonderful sisters and wonderful loving brother I love u all! I shall be back!" As I walked off with the man he said, "Mynce..My beautiful loved one it has been to long..." I replied, "Indeed it has been forever my Angel." as I gave him the cutest smile and as I looked into his beautiful light midnight brown eyes and ran my fingers in his hair that ran down past his ears just by a little and I had tears as he said, "It has been way...way to long my Mynce..." I replied, "Indeed Angel." I learned that he really always have had a crush on me...the blood he pulled into two wine glasses as they shined like a mirror and I said, "Perfect...Thank you Angel" He stood up and held his glass and said, "I give this to my loved one I have always cared for and I hope to countine this journey!" As we clanked our glasses together sounding like two swords going together in a fight. I drank my blood and he did as well as I looked at him I said, "Thank you Angel..." I wiped the blood off my lips and looked at him smiling as he said, "Mynce I have a question I have been wanting to ask for sometime now" I said, "Oh?" As he got on his knee looking like to beg for forgiveness for being gone so long the words he said to me made me smile he said, "Mynce..." ("Mynce will you marry me and be my wonderful wife?") I was shocked...Amazed...But then my sisters said, "You didn't ask her did you?!" I looked a little nervous my sisters would yell any minute as I looked at him and said, "I do Angel!" My sisters looked at me as they said, "Have you lost your mind Mynce!" I replied, "I love Angel and you cant stop me for who I love!" I ran over to him and held him dearly like there was no tomorrow

I never wanted to let go...Nope never could I ever! I walked off saddened my sisters had to yell at me for it. I looked at him and he whispered, "I love you Mynce" and I looked into his eyes and said, "I love you too Angel" As he held me close I jumped out of his arms and shot a Nazi behind him and said, "Back off little monster!" So we returned to Brimstone Society as I saw Rayne tapping her foot and looking at me and Angel and I whispered, "Back off sister I don't need you teaching me anything! Angel is all I need!" Rayne whispered, "I am sorry for what I said before I thought he was our father so I felt like you were crazy." I said, "He doesn't look like father!" I glared at her and sighed and walked off with my back to her sighing to myself and went to look at the stars outside as I felt the hand on my shoulder and the words "I love you Mynce Always have always will" I sighed and leaned my head back and kissed a guy I didn't know as I got up really fast scared not knowing what to do as I tackled him I said, "Where are you! What do you want from me!" He said, "No harm ma'am I just am here to tell you Angel will die..." I held my wrist blade to his throat and said, "You back off my finance!" I ran inside trying to find him and I saw him sitting there as he was looking into the mirror of his own blood I ran to him and held him close and yelled back at the man that held me back for the time I was worried I looked over at Angel and I crawled to him and said, "Hun you gonna be ok?" I slit my wrist and placed it on his mouth as the blood dripped into his mouth like water into a fountain I was shaking at this point I said to him, "Don't die...Dont die...Dont die...Dont die" As I cried I felt Rayne place her hand on my shoulder and she whispered, "What is i..t.OH MY GOD!" She kneeled near me and held me and was shaking worried for me and I said I miss him already...and I prayed thinking only thinking I hope he's ok...

Chapter 2 Dead or Alive

I was scared my heart was in my throat I heard the words "Mynce...I love you don't leave me..." as my sister and I looked back he said, "I am fine my loved one." He gave us a smile as Sil and Leon said, "Ugh This is gonna be another lovely-dovey moment..." Rayne got up and ran after them as I looked to him smiling that he was fine as he leaned upwards I leaned down as my hair capped over his face I kissed him slowly feeling his hand in mine as tears ran down my face to his he ran his fingers in my hair and said, "I am safe now...dont worry this Angel named Angel shall live on for his future wife." He smiled as I smiled in return. I said, "You had me worried there for the past six mins or so!" As we got up Rayne was holding the man that kept me back and I muttered: "Yep thats him thats it u will die Nazi" I growled at him and took him with me "I shall be back my loved ones" I said to my family and lover...I growled at the man that tried to keep me away from Angel and I said, "Who are you? Where are you from!" He stabbed me in my chest as I screamed as Rayne saw me in pain as Angel saw me as his eyes widened and he ran down to me as I layed down in blood weak thinking "god help me please..." Angel placed his hand over my chest and said, "Baby girl don't worry I am here now...dont worry" I looked up at him as tears rolled down my face he placed his hand on my face and leaned down and nuzzled my neck and said, "You shouldn't have to deal with all this pain" I nodded my head at him and started to say I know but by this time his finger was at my lips and he said, "Shh your in pain." I had tears rolling down my face and I nodded saying, "Why do I have to be in pain right now why don't it just come back later!" He looked at me and nodded, "Your fine hun..." He said I layed in pain feeling sorry for myself and I really started hateing myself for everything I have done to hurt anyone or anything.

Chapter 3 Leon Worried

As I layed there Leon came up to us and asked, "Okie whats going on you little pain in the butt" I looked at him and glared as I layed in the blood that shined like water in a glass put up to the sun and my wrists bleeding non-stop until Angel took his clothes and wraped my wounds up. Leon looked at him and smacked him and I screamed, "What the hell!" And my brother Leon said, "What he desves it!" I screamed saying something I never wanted my family to find out...But I said it..., "I am carrng his baby you ass!" Sil and Rayne looked at me with a face like what the hell and I covered my mouth and Leon said, "I will take him or her away from you both!!" I yelled, "How could you she's a invent!!!!" He laughed and walked off as Angel stood up and said, "You wanna fight Leon!?" My brother looked back and said, "Your not worth my time stay with my sister you ass!" as Rayne walked off to find Leon, Sil was looking around as she was pacing being bored and stepped on a bug hearing the squash she looked down and said, "Ugh, Eww..." She walked along and found a river remembering what I had said. "A dip might hurt but it wont kill you" she laughed a bit from what Rayne said after Mynce said that Rayne said, "So does sticking a finger in my eye! Doesn't mean I have to do it!" She started to walk as she felt as if she was the loner of the family when she knew she wasn't a loner...loners are for people that dont get talked to she tought to herself and sighed as she smiled a bit and Rayne shouted, "Sil move!" By the time Sil turned around someone tossed a knife at her and she ducked and said, "Ok who in the hell ever tried to do that will pay!" A man in a long black jacket with his hood on disapeared as I was kissing Angel I felt my sister scared and yet so worried...that I wasnt there at the moment. I looked at Angel and said, "I love you Angel thank you for everything you have given me...Thank you so much!" I pushed him down the hill as he grabed my hand at the last second and I went rolling down the hill with him and laughing having a good time a smiling and getting dizzy I fell in front of Rayne, Leon and Sil's feet and Angel was right above me and I looked at them and said, "Ehehe Hello!" He laughed a bit and picked me up as he set me in the car and I smiled as He got in on the drivers side and started driving as I said,"I might fall asleep if I do can you please wake me up I dont wanna fall asleep." He said,"Um sure If I look over and you are asleep I will wake you up okie dokie?" I nodded and smiled as I layed there slowly closeing my eyes not sleeping just keeping my eyes closed so the ride home wouldnt make me sick and he rubbed my side and said,"Lay back baby I need you to so you dont get sick from this" I leaned back and said,"Lemme sleep" I fell asleep as he smiled and kissed my cheek and kept driving as I was sleeping in the passinger side of the car he smiled at me and Watched where he was driving and I slept feeling as if we were in some kind of heaven or hell I didnt know yet but I heard someone calling my name as I sat up really fast breathing hard as he looked at me and I looked out the window and I pulled down the mirror from the sunvisor and looked into that little mirror and I swore I saw something as I said, "That little bitch..." He said, "Hun?" I put the sunvisor with the mirror up and said, "I swear on my life I saw something!" He said, "You were asleep dreaming hun... dont worry... I have everything under my hands... forever you shall be safe" I nodded as I fell back asleep. As of twinty minutes later he said, "We are home sweet cakes..." I smiled and got outta the car and smiled as I got out of the car I went to our door opened it. I went to the bed and I opened the covers. The I sat there watching Tv for a bit. As Angel was holding me I slowly but safely felt my eyes getting heavy like a pile of bricks I slowly closed my eyes and opened them again and I looked at him and kissed him as he kissed me back I leaned back, Covered myself up and covered him up as well... I soon closed my eyes as I turned the Tv off and I looked at him and held him laying on my side with my legs wraped around him I slowly kissed him for the last time I smiled at him as He smiled back and said, "Good night my Mynce... Forever I love you" I smiled and looked into his eyes and said, "I love you too forever my lover! My Amore!" I closed my eyes... Layed my head on his chest as He ran his fingers in my hair as I layed there for a few minutes of no sleep in the past six weeks... I closed my eyes... and he sang, "night... My baby... Be still dont cry... Everything... Will be alright... tonight the stars will light... Dont you worry everything will be okie..." I slowly smiled and looked at him as I purred as He purred back... And in six weeks of no sleep at all from worrying where Angel was all that time I slowly closed my eyes and I slowly... But felt like forever I closed my eyes all the way... I finally have had the chance... Not to worry... I was happy... slowly I smiled thats when I started to purr... And the first time in forever... I slept like a baby girl in her crib.
